From Your Editors

Dear Readers

Greetings for 2012 and happy recorder playing in the year ahead. In this newsletter there is an update of the current Committee members, playing groups and also the new membership list

We were very saddened to hear of the recent death of life member Johanna Moller. She will be missed by many members.

The library list is being updated by Neil Boland and the committee and library team of Jessica and Dawn are processing all music requests as quickly as possible.

The website srpnz.wordpress.com will hold the most recent news on SRPNZ activities.

You will find the record of members at the end of this issue. Please check your details and send any correction to blackbourn@xtra.co.nz or dmanleys@xtra.co.nz. SRP Recorder News is usually emailed to members with an email address - those members without email receive it by regular mail or those who request snail mail delivery.

Time Out Recorder Group

Despite some of its members falling prey to persistent winter lurgies, 2011 was a productive and successful year for the Time Out recorder group. As well as playing at the Waitakere Central and New Lynn Libraries in Auckland, the group performed at the Hay Park and Marshall Laing primary schools. These concerts were encouraging as many students expressed interest in the recorder as an instrument. The group was also privileged to perform at the Gracedale Resthome.

Currently Time Out meets weekly in Mount Roskill and monthly in Mount Eden. New members are welcome.

Rangitoto Ensemble

The Rangitoto Ensemble's community playing has in recent years taken place at St. John the Baptist, Anglican Church, Northcote, where we also have our playing day in July and annual general meeting in November each year.

This venue has excellent playing facilities with a large hall for massed playing and several rooms for small group playing, kitchen and toilet amenities and parking in front of and at the back of the church. These photos show us playing in the narthex of the church as people arrive for the Christmas Carol service. We then join in the carol singing and complete the evening and our year of playing together by eating out at a local restaurant.

Library Borrowing

If you live in Auckland, you can make an appointment to view the library (ph: 480 6396). For those who live out of Auckland, please send postage of 4 x 60c stamps, plus a list of the music you wish to order (maximum 10 titles) to the librarian: Jessica Shaw, 20A Compton St, Northcote, Auckland 0627. It is very helpful if you can locate the music number from the catalogue first. (E-mail: jessicashaw@xtra.co.nz and dmanleys@xtra.co.nz for more information).
