Committee News

Kevin Kim is working on a Facebook page for the Society. This should, along with the website, be a useful form of communication for current and prospective members.

The Society has a number of recorders that have been donated over the years. Jessica is compiling a list of these recorders. Some of them will be available for borrowing while others are of historical interest.

Neil Boland while on holiday in the UK purchased on behalf of the Society a Mollenhauer C-Bass. All the committee, who have heard it being played, commented on its beautiful sound. If you would like to borrow it please contact Jessica Shaw (Jessicashaw@xtra.co.nz). We hope to have some photos of it being played for the next newsletter.

Upcoming Events

Kevin Kim will play the recorder with NZ Barok in the upcoming concert "The Nations" at St Luke's Church, 130 Remuera Road on Saturday 4 May and Sunday 5 May. Further information is available on the web site: <http://www.nzbarok.org.nz/concerts/>

Library Borrowing

If you live in Auckland, you can make an appointment to view the library (ph: 480 6396). For those who live out of Auckland, please send postage of 4 x 60c stamps, plus a list of the music you wish to order (maximum 10 titles) to the librarian: Jessica Shaw, 20A Compton St, Northcote, Auckland 0627. It is very helpful if you can locate the music number from the catalogue first. (E-mail: jessicashaw@xtra.co.nz and dmanleys@xtra.co.nz ).
